

Collaboration across professions and throughout Europe
Monday 8th May

Time	Session/Speakers
10.00	Registration and Refreshments
10:30	Welcome and Opening Remarks Chris Todd, Lorenzo Chiari, Clemens Becker, Arnaud Senn Erik van der Burg, Alderman, Municipality of Amsterdam
10:45	Collaboration – EU Perspectives & Best Practice Plenary Session followed by Q and A Session Chair: Lorenzo Chiari Inter-professional collaboration: a nursing home implementation pilot Koen Milisen, Professor of Care for Older Persons, KU Leuven, Belgium Ellen Vlaeyen, Research Assistant, KU Leuven, Belgium Inter-professional: education Tash Masud, President-elect British Geriatrics Society & Consultant Gerontologist, UK Bridging the gap, hospital to home: lessons from transitional care interventions Bianca Buurman, Professor of Transitional Care, Amsterdam Medical Centre, Netherlands Collaborative frameworks for novel fall prevention interventions; multifactorial pathways Fabio La Porta, Clinician, International Medicine and Rehabilitation, AUSL, Italy
12:45	Lunch Exhibitors
13:45	Collaboration – Global Perspectives Key Note Addresses followed by Q and A Session Chair: Chris Todd STEADI: Reducing Falls in the United States by Engaging the Health Care System Robin Lee, Team Lead Home & Recreation, CDC, Atlanta, USA Falls prevention in Europe: from international collaboration to local implementation Yongjie Yon, Technical Officer, Violence & Injury Prevention and Healthy Ageing, WHO EU, Denmark
14:45	Refreshments
15:15	Self-Management: Inter-professional approaches and challenges Case study analysis, panel discussion, Q and A Session Chair: Kim Delbaere & Nathalie Van de Velde Nursing: Emma Stanmore, Senior Lecturer Nursing, University of Manchester, UK Medics: Clemens Becker, Head of Clinical Gerontology, Robert Bosch Krankenhaus, Stuttgart, Germany

	Physiotherapy: Amanda Clifford, Senior Lecturer Physiotherapy, University of Limerick, Ireland Occupational Therapy: Murthe Pruijn, Occupational Therapist, Slotervaart Hospital, Amsterdam, Netherlands Exercise Instructors: Dawn Skelton, Professor of Ageing & Health, Glasgow Caledonian University, UK Technologists: Eling de Bruin, Associate Professor, Maastricht University, Netherlands (TBC) Psychologists: Klaus Pfeiffer, Research Coordinator, RBK, Stuttgart Patient Perspective: Anne-Sophie Parent, Secretary General, AGE Platform Europe
17:00	The Debate Session Chair: Dawn Skelton Are novel technologies the future for successful falls prevention? Luca Palmerini, Research Fellow, University of Bologna, Italy Heidrun Mollenkopf, Vice President, Age Platform Europe
18:00	Day one end Exhibitor Space/Drinks reception

Tuesday 9th May

Time	Session/Speakers
09:00	Welcome Day Two Chris Todd, Lorenzo Chiari, Clemens Becker EU Support for A2 Action Group/ EIP AHA Arnaud Senn, Projects Officer, European Commission, DG CONNECT, Belgium
09:15	Key Note Address followed by Q and A Session Chair: Clemens Becker Virtual reality treatment for reducing fall risk: Results from a multi-center European RCT Jeff Hausdorff, Director, Centre for the Movement of Cognition and Mobility, Tel Aviv Souvasky Medical Centre, Israel
09:45	Multi-factoral interventions: Inter-professional approaches and challenges Case study analysis, panel discussion, Q and A Session Chairs: Judith Kuiper & Mirjam Pijnappels (TBC) Nursing: Laura Albornos Munoz, Spanish Centre for Evidence-Based Nursing and Healthcare Madrid, Spain Medics: Hubert Blain, Director of Education, Centre for the Prevention and Treatment of Aging Diseases, Montpellier, France Physiotherapy: Natalie Breswetherick, Director of Practice & Development, Chartered Society of Physiotherapy, UK Occupational Therapy: Avril Drummond, Professor of Healthcare Research, University of Nottingham, UK Exercise Instructors: Bex Townley, Director Later Life Training, Scotland, UK Technologists: Lorenzo Chiari, Professor of Biomedical Engineering, University of Bologna, Italy Psychologists: Beatrix Vereijken, Professor in Medicine & Human Movement Science, NTNU, Norway Patient Perspective: Anne-Sophie Parent, Secretary General, AGE Platform Europe
11:30	Refreshments
11:50	Geographical collaboration; across regions and borders Plenary Session followed by Q and A? Session Chair: Arnaud Senn Profit and non-profit coalitions develop TOM: a sustainable national falls prevention service Aldwin Vriesema, Medical Director, Nutricia, Netherlands Friso de Jong, Secretary of the Board ONVZ, Netherlands

	Implementing OTAGO across Europe – Scaling Up Dawn Skelton, Professor of Ageing & Health, Glasgow Caledonian University, UK
12:40	Lunch Exhibitors
13:30	Key Note Address followed by Q and A Session Chair: Chris Todd Bespoke technology-based intervention programs to prevent falls in older people and advance healthy ageing Kim Delbaere, Associate Professor, Neuroscience Research Australia, Sydney, Australia
14:00	Specialist Seminars: (delegates pre-select) Drug related falls Hubert Blain, Director of Education, Centre for the Prevention and Treatment of Aging Diseases, Montpellier, France Tash Masud, President-elect British Geriatrics Society & Consultant Gerontologist, UK Nathalie Van de Velde, Head of Geriatrics, Amsterdam Medical Centre, Netherland Ongoing Intervention Studies The osteoporotic fracture prevention programme in rural areas (OFRA). A cluster-randomized health care fund driven intervention in a routine health care setting Kilian Rapp, Senior Physician, Robert Bosch Krankenhaus, Stuttgart, Germany Involving older people in technological developments: PreventIT Chris Todd, Professor of Public Health and Primary Care, University of Manchester, UK Elisabeth Boulton, Research Associate, University of Manchester
15:30	Closing Remarks Chris Todd, Clemens Becker, Lorenzo Chiari
16:00	Event Close