

IGNATIUS NASCHER PRIZES OF THE CITY OF VIENNA IN GERIATRICS

The Ignatius Nascher Prizes in Geriatrics will be awarded by the City of Vienna during next year's 7th Viennese International Geriatrics Conference.

The Sponsorship Prize (3.630 €) will be awarded to applicants who have shown an important scientific contribution to the field of geriatrics, with a special emphasis on the areas of health promotion, prevention, diagnostics, therapeutics, rehabilitation or continued geriatric long-term care.

Closing date: 15 January 2004

Address: Prim. Dr. Katharina Pils

Ludwig Boltzmann Institute for Interdisciplinary Rehabilitation in Geriatrics
SMZ-Sophienspital, Apollogasse 19, A-1070 Vienna, Austria
e-mail: ilse.howanietz@wienkav.at

Submission for the Sponsorship Prize should include in triplicate :

1. the completed study including the project evaluation or the publication in a reknown scientific journal
2. an application letter
3. Curriculum vitae

The application may be presented by a person, a team or an institution. Former prize-awarded publications or theses submitted for the certificate of habilitation are excluded. The publications or completes and evaluated projects have to be presented in english or german. The summary should be structured according to the general publication rules, i.e. aim of the study; patients, material and methods; results; discussion; references; abstract. (500 - 1.000 words)

The applicant joins a written statement, that all scientific participants were mentioned as coauthors or acknowledged.

The winner of the Sponsorship Prize will be informed by the end of March 2004, the prize-winning study should be presented during the 7th Viennese International Geriatrics Conference in May 2004.