

Andreas Motel-Klingebiel
Norrköping, 17 March 2021

The Division Ageing and Social Change (ASC, www.ageing.se), Department of Culture and Society (IKOS), at Linköping University, Sweden, is seeking to recruit to the following position:

Postdoctoral fellow - Exclusion and inequality in late working life

The postdoctoral fellow will mainly work within the international comparative research project 'EIWO - Exclusion and Inequality in Late Working Life: Evidence for Policy Innovation Towards Inclusive Extended Work and Sustainable Working Conditions in Sweden and Europe' within a consortium of partners in four European countries (www.eiwo-project.org). The holder of the advertised position will primarily work with research and may carry out teaching limited to 20 percent of full time.

The application deadline is March 31, 2021.

Informal enquiries may be made to Andreas Motel-Klingebiel (andreas.motel-klingebiel@liu.se). For further details and the application form see <https://liu.se/en/work-at-liu/vacancies?rmpage=job&rmjob=15933&rmlang=UK>

Best regards,

Prof. Dr. Andreas Motel-Klingebiel

Chair in Ageing and Later Life
Research Director and Head of Division
Linköping University
Division Ageing and Social Change (ASC)
Department of Culture and Society (IKOS)
S-601 74 Norrköping
Sweden
Please visit us at liu.se

---

LINKÖPING UNIVERSITY	Contact	Postal Address	Visiting Address
Org 202100-3096	+46 11-36 33 94	Department of Culture and Society	405
Vat SE202100309601	andreas.motel-klingebiel@liu.se	Division Ageing and Social Change SE-601 74 Norrköping	Kopparhammaren 7 Campus Norrköping